It is sung in 3 languages, has story telling, humor, dancing, costume changes, audience interaction and participation and one amazing drum solo. Pop'ra has one incredible live orchestra that ranges in size depending on the venue.

Pop'ra is one solid 90 minute dynamite show that will have your audience singing and clapping along, and yes even dancing...and the second it is over, the audience will have been moved with joy, fondness, laughter and tears and will immediately rise to their feet to show their appreciation for what they've just witnessed.

Pop'ra is, without question, a total entertainment experience. Vincent runs the gamut with his incredible vocal range, endearing personality, versatility and a wide range of talents that won't soon be forgotten. Every segment from each of these artists is beautifully transitioned with smooth seamless effort. Each song's arrangement is crafted in a flawless manor. An incredible 38 songs are skillfully and intricately performed.

The range of music and singers that are presented in this show, from one side of the spectrum to the complete opposite, is unprecedented.

Critics have named Vincent "one of the hardest and most versatile entertainers of our time" and it is easy to see why. It is a dynamic non stop show that one can only parallel to watching a fireworks show...undeniably the most electrifying amount of energy that has ever been seen on any stage. One interesting side note: Vincent is the protégé of famed Dave Brubeck drummer Joe Morello.

We invite you to experience Pop'ra for yourself because frankly, talk is cheap. Only seeing is believing that all of this can be eloquently performed in just one polished dynamite 90 minute show.
